WEDNESDAY EVENING, JULY 10.

|SELECTED. Not in Human Nature. - An estimable lady, a personal and beloved friend of mine, said to me, when urged to forgive an injury, "It is not in human nature to forgive injuries as goading as these." "You are right, my friend," I replied, "it is not in human nature; but it is in the grace of Christ. He has charged us, 'Love your enemies; bless them that curse you; do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you and persecute you; that ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven.' ' The lady had a long struggle with herself, but through the grace of Christ she overcame .-She forgave from the heart and was a happier woman and a more exemplary Christian ever after. These are high Christian virtues .-

They are not imaginary nor are they beyond

Christain attainment.

LETTER FROM HON. WM. L. GOGGIN.-The Richmond Whig of yesterday, published a long letter from Hon. Wm. L. Goggin, on the situation. The objects at which, he thinks, the people should aim, and the motives which should govern them in the present condition of the State, are: Fuithful compliance with the terms of reconstruction; the speediest attainative and efficient servants will be on hand to ble recovery of our position in the Union; the attend to the wants of guests, avoidance of party divisions and the suppression of party feeling among ourselves; the selection of men for public position without reference to what they may have called themselves in the past, or may call themselves now, but weighing only their fitness; kindly relations with the blacks; the indulgence of a hopeful spirit, &c., &c.
